SERVICE AREA POPULATIONS
Television Station WCOV-TV

The following engineering statement has been prepared for Woods Communications Corporation, license of television station WCOV-TV, and contains population counts of various facilities associated with that station.

The first is for the current grade B service of the analog construction permit for WCOV-TV (File No. BPCT-20041103ADU). The population within the 64 dBu contour based on the Commission's F(50,50) contours is 534,958.

Next is the current service from the STA for digital operation (File No. BDSTA-20021120ACR). The population within the noise limited service area based on 38.94 mv/m F(50,90) signal strength is 408,457.

Last is the proposed service from the existing construction permit for digital service (File No. BPCDT-19991021ACM). The population within the noise limited service area based on 38.94 mV/m F(50,90) signal strength is 1,183,045.

The preceding statement was prepared by me and is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

The Dexter Avenue Baptist Church

Rev. Dr. Martin L. King Jr. gained national attention for civil rights issues during his tenure, 1954 to 1960, as pastor of the Dexter Avenue Baptist Church, two blocks from the State Capitol Building. A civil rights memorial has been erected near the still-active church. On December 1, 1955, Rosa Parks became a civil rights heroine in the city by refusing to give up her bus seat to a white man. The reaction to this arrest led to the 382-day Montgomery Bus Boycott which forced the city to desegregate its transit system on December 21, 1956. In 1965, Dr. King's nationally-publicized march for justice was conducted from Selma to Montgomery.

Country music pioneer and legend Hank Williams lived part of his life, and is buried in Montgomery. Country star Alan Jackson eulogizes Williams in a popular song, called Midnight In Montgomery, about a trip to Hank's gravesite.
